Pesto is a sauce originating in Genoa in the Liguria region of northern Italy. The name is the contracted past participle of the Genoese word pestà (Italian: pestare), which means to pound, to crush, in referenc to the original method of preparation, with marble mortar and wooden pestle. Our version consists of crushed garlic, basil and blended with aglio ed oillio and Pecorino Romano Cheese. Available on any of our homemade pastas! Includes garlic bread.
